

- Malaysian Trade Minister Mustapa Bin Mohamed (tbc)
- Japanese Foreign Minister Koichiro Gemba (tbc)
- Vietnamese Minister of Industry & Trade Vu Huy Hoang (tbc)
- Turkish Minister of Economy Zafer Caglayan (tbc)
- Indian Trade Minister Anand Sharma (tbc)

-Rapporteur: TBD

10:45 Flash Forward: Services Trade Liberalization and the US Economy

-J. Bradford Jensen, Professor of Economics and International Business,
McDonough School of Business, Georgetown University

10:51 Plenary Session 2: Services Investment Liberalization: Avenues for Progress

This session will examine services investment liberalization as a driver of economic growth and prosperity and consider how the TPP, the ISA, the EU-US High-Level Working Group, the renewal of the Bilateral Investment Treaty (BIT) program, and other negotiations will address this challenge.

-Moderator: CSI Corporate Sponsor

- Ambassador Michael Punke, US Ambassador to the WTO
- Ambassador Tim Yeend, Australia's Ambassador to the WTO
- Colombian Vice Minister of Trade Gabriel Duque
- Marc Vanheukelen, Head of Cabinet for EU Trade Commissioner Karel De Gucht
- Ana Novik, Multilateral Director for International Economics Affairs, General Directorate for International Economic Affairs, Chile (tbc)

-Rapporteur: Sarah Schradin, Government Affairs Representative, ACE Group

12:00 Flash Forward: The Realm of Restrictions on Services Trade – OECD Analysis

-Hon. Crawford Falconer, Head of Trade, Services Division, OECD

12:15 Luncheon

Keynote

-Michael Froman, Deputy National Security Advisor for International Economic Affairs (tbc)

Introduced by: Daniel J. Brutto, President, UPS International

1:30 Flash Forward: The Realm of Restrictions on Services Trade – World Bank Analysis

-Aaditya Mattoo, Research Manager, Trade and Integration, World Bank

1:36

Plenary Session 3: Cross-Border Trade and the Digital Economy: The “Lifeblood” of Services Trade

This session will examine how the TPP, the ISA, the EU-US High-Level Working Group, and other negotiations will address to issues in the digital economy.

-Moderator: CSI Corporate Sponsor

-Kaaren Koomen, Board Member, Australian Services Roundtable, Director Government Relations, IBM Australia/New Zealand

-Ambassador Philip Verveer, US Coordinator for International Communications & Information Policy

-Kathryn Brown, Senior Vice President, Public Policy Development & Corporate Responsibility, Verizon

-Christine Bliss, Assistant US Trade Representatives for Services and Investment

-Joao Aguiar-Machado, Deputy Director-General, DG Trade, European Commission – (tbc)

Rapporteur: Shirley-Ann George, Vice Chair, Canadian Services Coalition

2:50

Coffee Break. Participants move to breakouts

3:05

Breakout Session 1: The Urgent Challenges Posed by State-Owned and Assisted Enterprises (SOEs)

This session will consider how SOEs pose competitive challenges to international service providers, affecting access to and operations in key global markets.

Moderator: TBD

-Charles Lake, Chairman, Aflac Japan

-Gary Hufbauer, Reginald Jones Senior Fellow, Peterson Institute for International Economics

-Barbara Weisel, Assistant US Trade Representative for Southeast Asia and the Pacific (tbc)

Rapporteur: TBD
Room

Breakout Session 2: The Role of Trade Facilitation and Enhanced Logistics in the Global Value Chain

This session will examine the importance of trade facilitation and logistics in facilitating effective operation of the global value chain.

Moderator: TBD

-Richard Eglin, Director, Trade Policy Review Division, WTO

-Jane Drake-Brockman, Hong Kong Services Coalition, Australian Services Roundtable

-Mike Mullen, Executive Director, Express Association of America

Rapporteur: TBD

Breakout Session 3: China – Developing the Critical Services “Growth Sector”

This session will examine not only the opportunities for US services providers in the China’s market. It also will consider the beneficial role of investment in enabling China to realize the goal set forth in its 12th Five-Year Plan of developing a growth-generating services sector. Negotiations on a US-China Bilateral Investment Treaty (BIT) will be considered within this context.

Moderator: Ambassador C. Lawrence Greenwood, Jr., Senior Managing Director for Government Relations, MetLife Alico

-Minister He Ning, Minister of Economic and Commercial Affairs, Embassy of the People’s Republic of China (tbc)

-Hosuk Lee-Makiyama, Co-Director, European Centre for International Political Economy

-Daniel Rosen, Principal, the Rhodium Group, and Visiting Fellow, Peterson Institute for International Economics (tbc)

Rapporteur: TBD

Breakout Session 4: India – Refocusing the Dialogue

This session will examine the benefits to India’s services sector development of US investment and the commercial opportunities for US service providers.

Moderator: TBD

-Edward Bowles, Chairman of the European Services Forum (ESF) Policy Committee, and Head of Public Affairs, Europe, Standard Chartered

-Sanjay Bhatnagar, Founder, THOT Capital Group, and CEO, WaterHealth International

-R. V. Kanoria, President, Federation of Indian Chambers of Commerce & Industry (tbc)

-Raj Jain, Managing Director & CEO, Bharti Wal-Mart, and President, AmCham India (tbc)

Rapporteur: TBD

4:15 Special Address: *Winners and Losers in a G-Zero World

-Ian Bremmer, President, Eurasia Group

Introduced by: Doug Bennett, Vice President, Liberty Mutual

5:00 Closing Remarks

5:15 Cocktail Reception

This session will feature commentary from the leaders of the Congressional Services Caucus about the legislative environment for policies to promote liberalization of services trade and investment.

- Introduction: CSI Corporate Sponsor
- Rep. Greg Meeks
- Rep. Kevin Brady (tbc)
- Rep. Joe Crowley (tbc)
- Rep. Ruben Hinojosa (tbc)
- Rep. Judy Biggert (tbc)